Subject: FW: Code of Conduct 2021

Information Classification: CONTROLLED

Dear All

As you will know Cornwall Council has now published a new Code of Conduct 2021 for councils in Cornwall. The House of Lords Committee in Standards of Public Life made a number of significant recommendations as part of its review into the Code of Conduct; after detailed work the Cornwall Code has been updated to reflect these recommendations. The CALC strongly supports this single code for all elected members in Cornwall and is pleased to recommend the 2021 edition. The key changes are set out below.

2.6 Gifts and Hospitality

The standard text has been changed to reflect the CoSIPL recommendation. The Cornwall Council code now requires gifts and hospitality in excess of £50 to be declared, but your council is able to set its own threshold of more or less than this figure.

2.16 Co operating with any investigation

The new code requires members to assist with any investigation into a complaint by the Monitoring Officer.

2.17 Training

The CoSIPL report recommended a greater requirement for members to undertake regular training. The new wording now requires training to be undertaken within six months and then where practical every 2 years or as required by the Monitoring Officer. As this is part of your Council's code of conduct it is important that training is offered to all new councillors not only after elections but also to those joining the council from time to time. Clerks are recommended to keep an attendance register to demonstrate that this element of the code has been met.

As the legislation and role of elected members is slightly different between the two tiers of local government, it will always be difficult to have a single version which reflects both. The Code circulated to you contained a number of elements specific to the unitary authority and the actions of unitary councillors as individuals. After feedback from clerks, I have made number of minor amendments which I have highlighted in red on the enclosed word document. The amendments are

- i) To reinstate the 2.13 from the previous code which states that a councillor must not authorise the use of council's resources on their own – and links to model standing orders
- ii) To reinstate 3.9 of the previous code which requires a member to tell the Clerk as well as the Monitoring Officer when making changes to their Register of Interests
- iii) Deleted 2.15 of the 2021 Code as it refers to a Leader/Cabinet system with Overview and Scrutiny which does not apply to first tier local councils.
- iv) Amended 2.15 of the 20021 Code to reflect the names of the relevant officers as appropriate for local councils

We are very fortunate in having a single Code which covers all elected members in the Duchy and I attach a copy of the 2021 version with the CALC recommended amendments in red. I hope that you will support the work of the Standards Committee and adopt the 2021 at the next opportunity.

As always please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Cornwall Council

Code of Conduct for Members and Co-opted Members of Local Councils

General principles of public life

The Localism Act 2011 requires the Council to adopt a Code of Conduct for Members that is consistent with the following principles:

Selflessness – Members should serve only the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.

Honesty and integrity – Members should not place themselves in situations where their honesty and integrity may be questioned. The public nature of a Member's role means the distinction between acting in your official capacity and your private life may become blurred and a Member's honesty and integrity may therefore be questioned.

As a result, a Member must ensure that, as far as possible, there is clear separation between what they do in their private life and in their capacity as a Member. This is especially the case when a Member's activity in their private life relates to the functions of the Council and/or their corporate responsibilities as a Member such that a reasonable member of the public may perceive that the conduct comes within the scope of this Code of Conduct.

Objectivity – Members should make decisions on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.

Accountability – Members should be accountable to the public for their actions and the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities and should co-operate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to their particular office.

Openness – Members should be as open as possible about their actions and those of their authority and should be prepared to give reasons for those actions.

Leadership – Members should promote and support these principles by leadership and, by example, and should act in a way that secures or preserves public confidence.

Cornwall Council also expects its Members to observe the following principles:

Duty to uphold the law – Members should uphold the law and, on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust that the public is entitled to place in them.

Personal judgement – Members may take account of the views of others, including their political groups, but should reach their own conclusions on the issues before them and act in accordance with those conclusions.

Respect for others – Members should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. They should respect the impartiality and integrity of the authority's statutory officers and its other employees.

Stewardship – Members should do whatever they are able to do to ensure that their authorities use their resources prudently, and in accordance with the law.

Whilst these overriding principles are not formally part of the Code of Conduct, they underpin the purpose and provisions of the Code of Conduct and are principles in accordance with which Members should conduct themselves.

Introduction and Interpretation

1. This Code of Conduct has been adopted by Cornwall Council to support its duty to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by Members of the Council as required by the Localism Act 2011. The Standards Committee assumes ownership of the Code on behalf of the Council and also monitors the operation of the Code in conjunction with the Monitoring Officer.

2. In this Code:

“disclosable pecuniary interest” means an interest described in Part 5A of this Code and which is an interest of a Member or an interest of (i) that Member’s spouse or civil partner; (ii) a person with whom that Member is living as husband or wife; or (iii) a person with whom that Member is living as if they were civil partners, and that Member is aware that that other person has the interest as found on page 11 of this Code

“dispensation” means a dispensation granted by the Standards Committee of the Council or other appropriate person or body which relieves a Member from one or more of the restrictions set out in sub-paragraphs 3(5)(i), 3(5)(ii) and 3(5)(iii) of Part 3 of this Code to the extent specified in the dispensation

“interest” means any disclosable pecuniary interest or any disclosable non-registerable interest where the context permits

“meeting” means any meeting of the Council, the Cabinet and any of the Council’s or the Cabinet’s committees, sub-committees, joint committees, joint sub-committees, area committees or working groups

“Member” includes an Elected Member and a Co-opted Member

“non-registerable interest” mean an interest as defined in Part 5B of this Code as found on page 13 of this Code

“register” means the register of disclosable pecuniary interests maintained by the Monitoring Officer of the Council

“sensitive interest” means an interest that a Member has (whether or not a disclosable pecuniary interest) in relation to which the Member and the Monitoring Officer consider that disclosure of the details of that interest could lead to the Member, or a person connected with the Member, being subject to violence or intimidation

“trade union” means a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992

Part 5A – Disclosable Pecuniary Interests

In this Part of the Code the expressions in the middle column have the meanings attributed to them in the right hand column

(a)(i)	"body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest"	means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest
(a)(ii)	"director"	includes a member of the committee of management of an industrial and provident society
(a)(iii)	"land"	includes an easement, servitude, interest, or right over land which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income

The following table sets out the disclosable pecuniary interests that have been prescribed by the Secretary of State for the purposes of the Code of Conduct and the Localism Act, 2011.

Interest		Description
(b)(i)	Employment, office, trade, profession or vocation	Any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain
(b)(ii)	Sponsorship	Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from the relevant authority) made or provided within the relevant period in respect of any expenses incurred by you in carrying out your duties as a member, or towards the election expenses of you. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union(as defined above)
(b)(iii)	Contracts	Any contract which is made between the relevant person (or a body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest) and the relevant authority under which goods and services are to be provided or works are to be executed and which has not been fully discharged

(b)(iv)	Land	Any beneficial interest in land which is within the area of the relevant authority
(b)(v)	Licences	Any licence (alone or jointly with others) to occupy land in the area of the relevant authority for a month or longer

Part 5B – Non-registerable interests

You have a non-registerable interest where a decision in relation to a matter being determined or to be determined:

- (i) might reasonably be regarded as affecting the financial position or wellbeing of you; a member of your family or any person with whom you have a close association; or anybody or group which you are a member of more than it might affect the majority of council tax payers, rate payers or inhabitants in your electoral division or area; and
- (ii) the interest is such that a reasonable person with knowledge of all the relevant facts would consider your interest so significant that it is likely to prejudice your judgement of the public interest;

save that business relating to the following functions will not give rise to non-registerable interests:

- (iii) school meals or school transport and travelling expenses, where you are a parent or guardian of a child in full time education, or are a parent governor of a school, unless it relates particularly to the school which the child attends;
- (iv) statutory sick pay under, where you are in receipt of, or are entitled to the receipt of, such pay;
- (v) an allowance, payment or indemnity given to Members;
- (vi) any ceremonial honour given to Members; and
- (vii) setting of the council tax

and for the avoidance of doubt the above exceptions to the definition of non-registerable interests do not negate the requirements arising from having a disclosable pecuniary interest.
